Adoration of The Blessed Sacrament St Peter's Church, Milford

Fr Stephen invites all Adorers including substitute Adorers and all those who hold the Blessed Sacrament in esteem, to an open meeting on Wednesday 28th August at 7pm in St Peter's Church, Oratory. At this time in our Adoration Ministry we are faced with a number of evolving issues: such as lack of adequate cover for the morning and afternoon hours, we only have one person for some of the hours, which isn't best practice. It is better and safer to have shorter hours of Adoration with more people in attendance during every hour.

Fr Stephen invites you to have your say: should the Adoration on Thursdays start at a later time of 4pm and end at a earlier time of 9pm. Have you have any suggestions as to how to engage others in this ministry? Are there any initiatives we could pursue to reach out to the youth or to those who are new to our Parish? The Adoration ministry is a priceless treasure in our midst. The Prayer Rota of Adorers releases untold graces from the Heart of Jesus upon us, our parish community and indeed our world at large.

If you feel you could spare one hour a week and would like to spend some time with Jesus in Adoration, please come to the meeting and have your say.
