Night Prayer to Our Blessed Mother

Night is falling, dear Mother, and the long day is over,
And before your beloved image I'm kneeling once more.
To thank you for keeping me safe through the day,
To ask you this night to keep evil away.

Many times have I fallen today, Mother dear,
Many graces neglected since last I knelt here.
Will you not in pity, my own Mother mild,
Ask Jesus to pardon the sins of His child.

I am going to rest, for the day's work is done,
Its hours and its moments have passed, one by one.
And the God who will judge me has counted them all,
He has numbered each fault, he has counted each fall.

In His book they are written against the Last Day,
Oh, Mother, ask Jesus to wash them away.
For one drop of His Blood, which for sinners is spilt,
Is sufficient, to cleanse the whole world from its guilt.

And if near the dawn I should draw my last breath,
And the sleep that I take be the long sleep of death.
Be near me, dear Mother, for Jesus' dear sake,
When my soul on eternity's shore shall awake. Amen.

Prayer for those preparing for Exams

Dear Lord, as I take this exam,
I thank you that my value is not based on my performance,
but on your great love for me.

Come into my heart so that we can walk through this time together.
Help me, with this test, and the many tests of life yet to come my way.

As I take this exam, bring back to my mind everything I studied and be gracious with what I have overlooked.

Help me to remain focused and calm, confident in the facts and in my ability, and firm in the knowledge that no matter what happens today, you are there with me.

Amen.
